NEWSLETTER

Issue 2, Summer 2017

Many of our bedrooms have recently been refurbished. The latest to receive a major makeover is room 7, which is already proving very popular, particularly with our wedding guests.

Ashley's Message

Three words to describe the past few months? Busy, busy, busy.

Our bedroom refurbishment program has continued apace and wedding parties have been making good use of our new outdoor areas.

Sticking with the great outdoors, one of our next major projects involves the installation of an attractive new decking area. The end result should provide a great place for an afternoon cream tea or a spot of alfresco dining.

Somerset is a great destination at any time of year, but the summer time here is hard to beat. There are many historic houses, gorgeous gardens and fantastic outdoor spaces just a short drive from our hotel. You can find out more about our new National Trust map inside.

It is always a pleasure to get actively involved in helping local events and good causes. The hotel recently lent its support to Ilminster's second Literary Festival, an event attended by the likes of Lord Paddy Ashdown and Terry Waite OBE. We enjoyed playing host to literary lunches, readings and debates.

We will also be continuing with our sponsorship of the Ilminster Firework Display – an evening guaranteed to go with a bang! You can keep up to date with this and other local events by following the hotel on Facebook and Twitter.

I hope to be able to welcome you to the hotel soon.

Ashley Preece
Manager
